Saturday, January 6. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 6.

Cracow, December 14.

THE principal Officers of that part of the Army of the Crown that is in the Confederacy for King Augustus, have held a Council, in which they resolv'd to persist in that Confederacy, till the Tranquility of the Republick is fully re-establish'd. 'Tis said they are against enlarging the Prince's James and Constantine Sobieski from their Confinement, till the Republick has declar'd its Resolution concerning them; and that they are resolv'd to make Refusals in case the Swedes offer to attack Czeszokova. Monsieur Rybinski, who was deputed by the King to assist in this Council, did not think fit to appear in it, because he was inform'd the Debates in it were manag'd with too much Heat and Irregularity; but the said Confederated Part of the Army has nominated Deputies to wait upon his Majesty with an Address. Part of the Swedish Cavalry and Infantry is quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of Vielun and Radom, where they raise heavy Contributions. The King's Troops are dispos'd into Quarters at Wieszniez and Tarnowies, and other Places thereabouts; according to an Agreement between the Castellan of Cracow and the Marshal of the confederated Part of the Army of the Crown. His Majesty's Court is at Wieszniez, where Preparations are made against the fitting of the Great Council that is to be assembled the 8th of January, by which time his Majesty is expected there from Saxony. The Vice-Chancellor of the Kingdom, the great Marshal, the Ambassador of Muscovy, and other Noblemen, are at Bochnia a Mile distant from Wieszniez; and the Castellan of Cracow is at Krzeczow, whither the Persons of Quality we have just mention'd resort often and hold Conferences with him on publick Affairs. We are very much afraid of the coming of the Swedes into the Neighbourhood of this Place.

Warsaw, Dec. 19. The Swedes have demolish'd the Fortifications of Koscian. Some of their Troops are come to Rawa, Piotrowits, and other Places thereabouts, and the Swedish Commissaries are expected at Lowitz. The Estates of the Palatinat of Siradia have sent Deputies to the pretended new King Stanislaus, to make their Submission to him. 'Tis reported the King of Sweden has refus'd to give Audience at Rawicz to the King of Prussia's Envoy. The Palatin of Culm is return'd to Caminiec, from his Embassy to the Czar of Muscovy, and having sent Advice to Court of his Arrival, he is order'd to repair to the Great Council which will be held next Month, to render an Account of his Negotiations, and the Treaties he has concluded with the Czar, to the great Advantage of the King and the Republick.

Amsterdam, Jan. 6. It appears by our last Advices from the North, that the Rigour of the Season is not sufficient to restrain the Motions of the Swedes in Poland; and several Inhabitants of Cracow, being very apprehensive of their advancing thither, have prepar'd to retire from thence with their Effects. If the Design of the Swedes is to possess themselves of that Place, in order to cause King Stanislaus to be crown'd there, they may find some Difficulty in it; for King Augustus on the first notice of their having such a Design, will return from Saxony to Cracow, to put himself at the Head of his Army. His Majesty has given Orders for the utmost Diligence to be us'd in raising new Regiments and Recruits for his Saxon Troops, whom he proposes to encrease to 36000 Men by next Spring. The Pope's Nuncio, who resides at Wieliczka, has notified to the Cardinal Primate, the Pope's Letter, in which his Eminency is cited to appear at Rome; and this Notification was made in due Form, and in Presence of Witneses, to the End, that if his Eminency do not obey the Citation, the Court of Rome may proceed to inflict the Penalty specified in the said Letter. The Bishop of Posnania continues under Confinement in Saxony.

Some private Advices from Poland tell us, that by a Treaty made between the King of Sweden and the pretended new King Stanislaus it is stipulated, that if King Stanislaus get possession of the Kingdom of Poland, the great Duchy of Lithuania shall be yielded to the House of Sapieha; and Courland, and part of Samogitia to the King of Sweden; and that in case the new King cannot be settled in Poland, Endeavour shall be us'd to establish him in the Great Duchy of Lithuania, and then part of Samogitia shall be given to the Family of Sapieha, and all Courland to the King of Sweden. Time will shew what Foundation there is for this News.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 6.

Nuremberg, Dec. 29. The Estates of Franconia having appointed the last Sunday of the Year, to be observ'd as a Day of Thanksgiving in all the Towns and Villages of their Circle, for the great Progress made by the Arms of the Empire and its Allies against the King of France and his Adherents; yesterday a solemn Thanksgiving Service was perform'd in every Church of this City, and Te Deum was sung to Music: The Bells were rung, and a triple Discharge was made of all the Artillery on our Ramparts.

Frankfort, Dec. 31. To Morrow Te Deum will be sung here, for the Advantages gain'd the last Campaign by the Allies against France; the Cannon on our Walls are to be fir'd, and there will be other Publick Expressions of Rejoycing. The Elector of Mentz is gone to Bamberg, to pass the Winter there; his Electoral Highness passing through Aschafembourg in his Way thither, had a Conference with Prince Lewis of Baden. The Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt arrived here the 29th instant: He has given Directions for buying Horses, for a Regiment of Dragoons which he has order'd to be rais'd.
